memory means (Lineman: [0033]: creating two forms of security policies), and a survey module communicating with said memory means and said output means for generating from said information security object an element of a questionnaire to be output by means of said output device (Lineman: [0036]: quiz associated with security policy document and figure 2).

5. As per claim 2, Lineman discloses the computer system according to claim 1. Lineman further discloses the system comprising an educational module communicating with said memory means for receiving through said input device a set of answers to said questionnaire and for comparing said set of answers of said questionnaire with said information security objects for determining the correct and the incorrect answers, and generating, based on said incorrect answers, an educational program to be output by means of said output device (Lineman: [0075]: score the quizzes; [0082]: target the weakness that needs to be addressed).

6. As per claim 3, Lineman discloses the computer system according to claim 2. Lineman further discloses said set of answers being stored in said memory means (Lineman: [0075]: determine the score).

7. As per claim 4, Lineman discloses the computer system according to any of the claims 1-3. Lineman further discloses said memory means being organized as a database (Lineman: [0052]).

8. As per claim 5, Lineman discloses the computer system according to any of the claims 1-3. Lineman further discloses said computer system constituting a stand alone computer or alternatively a computer system including a network and a plurality of PC's each including an input device and an output device to be operated by a respective user (Lineman: [0026]: enterprise network).

9. As per claim 6, Lineman discloses the computer system according to any of the claims 1-3. Lineman further discloses said central processor unit controls in said conversion of said piece of said security information into said information security object, said policy module to check in said memory means the possible presence of a corresponding security information object (Lineman: figure 2 and [0032]).

10. As per claim 7, Lineman discloses a method of providing security awareness in an organization, comprising the steps of providing a piece of security information (Lineman: [0032] and figure 2), storing said piece of security information in a memory means as an information security object, said information security object being generated in a policy module (Lineman: [0032]), generating in a survey module an element of a questionnaire from said information security object and output said questionnaire including said element (Lineman: [0036]).

11. As per claim 8, Lineman discloses the method according to claim 7. Lineman further discloses the method comprising the computer system according to any of the claims 1-3 (Lineman: [0026] and [0031]).
